

2012 David B. Gracy II Student Scholarship

The Society of Southwest Archivists' David B. Gracy II Student Scholarship is named in honor of archival educator and SSA member, David Gracy, and is intended to provide book and tuition expenses up to $600 to an SSA student member enrolled in a graduate library, archives or public history program within the society's region.

Eligibility: Applicant must be a member of the Society of Southwest Archivists currently enrolled in a graduate archival education program, including Public History, Applied History, Library Science or Information Studies, at an institution within the SSA region, Arizona, Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas. Go to <http://southwestarchivists.org> for forms and complete information.

To Apply: Send the required application form and documentation to:

Brian Collins, C.A.
Chair, SSA Scholarships Committee
Dallas Public Library
Texas/Dallas History Division, 7th floor
1515 Young St., Dallas, Texas 75201

Deadline: Application must be postmarked by February 11, 2012.

For questions or additional information: E-mail the Scholarships Committee Chair at Brian.Collins@dallaslibrary.org, write to the above address, or go to <http://southwestarchivists.org>.